

Career Networking Events

Looking for employment solutions?

REIQ Career Networking Lunches and Evenings are an opportunity for REIQ Accredited Agencies, who are looking for well-trained, enthusiastic real estate rookies and REIQ trained students to connect in a casual environment and enable our students and member offices to mutually benefit from their affiliation with the REIQ.

These events are FREE of charge and are exclusively available to REIQ accredited agencies and to students who are currently studying or who have successfully completed their course recently with the REIQ.
